Appalachian Energy Summit

APPALACHIAN STATE UNIVERSITY

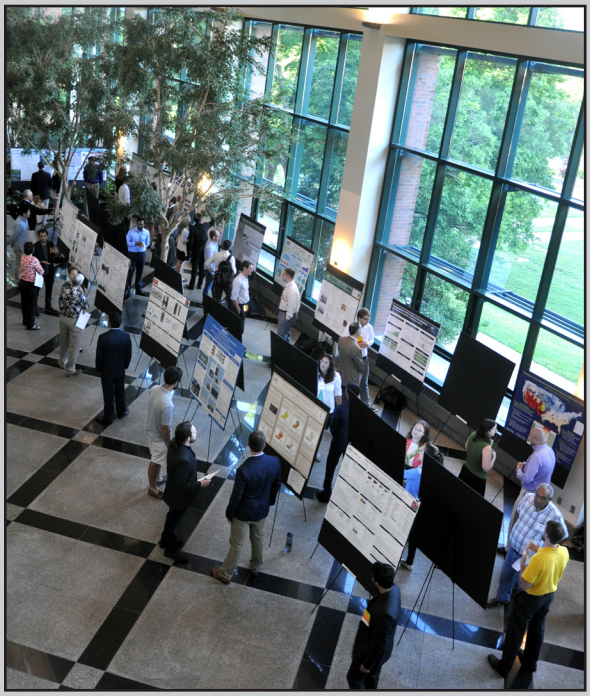
July 30, 31 & August 1, 2018
Boone, North Carolina

2018 Appalachian Energy Summit Poster Competition

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: JUNE 1, 2018

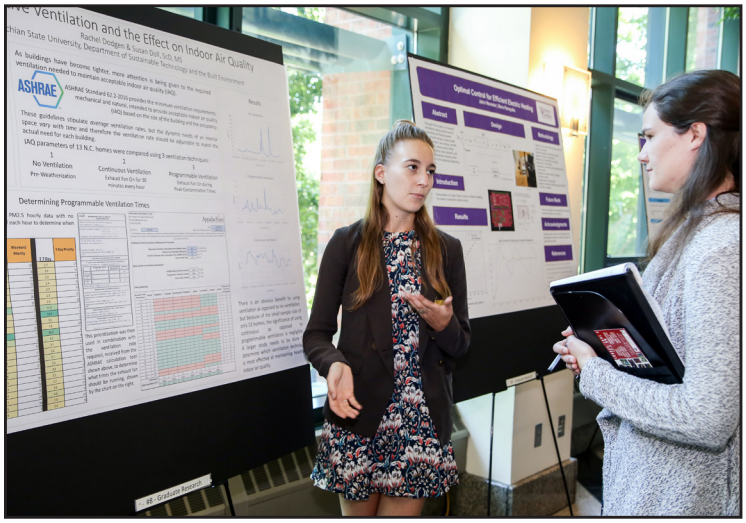
College and University students are invited to submit energy-related research or community or campus oriented projects to be considered for the Student Poster Competition.

For more information or to submit an abstract visit:
https://energy.appstate.edu/posters



SPONSORED BY

Appalachian Energy Center
APPALACHIAN STATE UNIVERSITY



CALL FOR POSTERS

- $2,400 in cash prizes
- Network with industry professionals, leaders,
- and corporations
- Resumes of competitors will be distributed through NCSEA to 600 prospective employers
- Competitors receive free access to the Appalachian Energy Summit, including lodging and meals

ABOUT THE SUMMIT

The 2018 Appalachian Energy Summit (AES) marks the 7th annual gathering of the University of North Carolina Energy Leadership Challenge. During this summit campus leaders from universities across the nation convene to share best practices and build peer relationships.

We encourage participants to leverage the University of North Carolina (UNC) system's leadership in energy innovation across the public and private sectors of the state's emerging energy economy.